KBM

KBM was build as a Knowledge Based Manufacturing system that allowed users to streamline their business practices and simplify the manufacturing process. Today, KBM is part of the Infor family of iSeries ERP software packages that have been brought into the Infor family. Infor focus for KBM is to have existing user begin to migrate towards Infor LX solution as the two are very similar in functionality.

We have the software solutions to meet all of your Infor KBM, or LX needs depending on what version you are using. From green screen integration, to System-Link, Webtop, or Net-Link interface. We are able to provide you with a solution that will allow your data collection to continue with seamless real-time integration into whatever version of Infor you are on today or into the future, and you can keep your existing hardware too!

Infor KBM Success Story:

"QuikTrac-iSeries software solution has allowed us to integrate with our Infor KBM software in real-time and eliminated hand writing down of transactions. Our accuracy and production reporting has increased to 99% and we are now able to reduce our overall inventory levels due to our ability to accurately track materials in our facility. The savings alone helped pay for our system in 2 months!
